URGING EXTENSION OF RAILWAY LINE INTO TUJUNGA

Glendale C. of C. Will Aid Neighboring Community In Its Campaign

Continuation of the Glendale & Montrose railway system into Tujunga was discussed at a meeting of the Tujunga Chamber of Commerce last night, representatives of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce participating in the discussion, with the result that a committee from Tujunga will, within the next few days, meet with directors of the Glendale organization for the purpose of furthering the campaign to secure railway communication.

Also the Tujunga Chamber of Commerce discussed plans to secure an independent postoffice for that section; improvements of streets; a lighting system; an electric sign carrying "Tujunga" in big letters, and other civic improvements.

But the big event before the Tujunga Chamber of Commerce right now is the Moon Festival to take place September 2 to 6 for the benefit of Monte Vista Post, American Legion, and, judging from the preliminary plans, thousands of people will invade the "Green Verdugo Hills" on those dates. Many original features are being arranged for the festival, under the direction of special committees.

Attend From Glendale

The Glendale Chamber of Commerce received an invitation to send representatives to the meeting last night and attending from this city were James Rhoades, secretary of the local organization, A. T. Cowan, publisher of The Glendale Evening News, and W. S. Ingram.

Secretary Rhoades pledged the aid of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce in furthering the interests of Tujunga, especially relative to the desire for a continuation of the railway system and the festival.

Mr. Cowan also offered to co-operate with the neighboring community in its improvement projects. He called attention to the fact that Glendale, too, is striving to secure an independent postoffice.

The Glendale Chamber of Commerce was elected to membership in the Tujunga organization and Secretary Rhoades announced that he would propose the Tujunga body for membership in the Glendale chamber at the next meeting of the board of directors.

May Meet Next Tuesday

It is probable that representatives of the Tujunga organization will attend a meeting of the board of directors of the Glendale body next Tuesday, a luncheon to be held at noon, at which further plans to secure a continuation of the railway line will be discussed.

The matter has been placed before officials of the railway, but no definite plan outlined, either by Tujunga or the railway. It is to formulate a presentable plan that the aid of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce is sought.

Business men of Glendale interviewed on the subject declare they are heartily in favor of railway communication with the neighboring community and, it is probable, when a definite plan is presented, Glendale will make an organized effort to secure the extension of the Glendale & Montrose railway system into the Tujunga section.

In the meantime, considerable local interest is being developed in the Moon Festival to be given at Tujunga next month.

E. T. Theobald, president of the Tujunga Chamber of Commerce, presided at last night's meeting. The organization is less than a year old and has nearly 300 members. Tujunga claims a population approaching 3,000, nearly 1,000 being residents there a year or less.

Unique Dinner Party Is Given at Beach

B. F. Bourne, business man of this city, and wife, of 211 West Colorado street, Eagle Rock, were guests at a very unique dinner party given by William Weiber, vice-president of the Southern California O. E. S. Patrons' association, at Santa Monica Saturday. One very clever stunt put on by Mr. Weiber was when all the patrons were gathered together and told that they were to escort to dinner a group of ballet girls. They were blindfolded and the supposed ballet girls brought in. After being seated at the tables and blindfolds removed they found their dinner partners to be none other than their own wives.

BACK FROM PLACENTIA

Mrs. C. C. Gruendyke of 405 Burchett street returned Saturday from Placentia where she made a week's visit.

HERE'S NEW ONE IN CITY; RADIO PARTY GIVEN FOR FRIENDS

Jazz Concert by Wireless at David Anderson's Home Last Night

The home of Mr. and Mrs. David Anderson of 3732 Seneca avenue was the scene last night of one of the most novel and unique social gatherings ever staged in Glendale when a number of their friends were guests at a "radio dinner" party.

This latest innovation into the circle of evening entertainments in Glendale is one of instruction as well as one of pleasure.

Following the serving of the delicious five-course dinner by the charming hostess the guests proceeded to "slip on" their receivers and "listen in" on the wireless telephone, where they heard a "jazz" concert that would make Alexander's Ragtime Band turn green with envy. With no musical instruments near them the merrymakers received all the thrills that they might have received from a modern dance orchestra.

The explanation is as follows: The Western Radio company works in conjunction with a large Los Angeles music house, and on every Tuesday night a number of new foxtrots, waltzes, etc., are introduced by means of the wireless telephone. Owners of radio sets as far north as Sacramento are thus able to enjoy a musical program which is being rendered in Los Angeles.

Although little dancing took place last night on account of the receiver wires getting tangled, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are planning on the immediate installation of a magnavox, which will permit all guests to listen to the "jazz" strains without the aid of individual receivers.

Those who attended the affair were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Nolan, Mrs. Allen, Jerome Erickson, Herman Kirckhoff and Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Wolcott.

Doris Maggarell Is About to Win Bike From Evening News

A few more one-year subscribers and Doris Maggarell will be "over the top" in The Glendale Evening News Bicycle club. Besides attending summer school she is working hard to win a $65 Harley-Davidson wheel—and she will, too.

There are others, mostly boys, who are making use of every available minute in getting the twenty yearly subscriptions or their equivalent which entitles each and every one to a well equipped bicycle.

With people returning from their vacations the "market is easier" for the young solicitors and many are finding that the early evening is the best time to work. However, it is steady endeavor on the part of club members that will win the coveted prize, according to A. T. Blanford, who is managing the subscription campaign.

Purchase Lot, Plan for Temporary Home

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Neugebauer of Kensington road, Los Angeles, have recently purchased a lot at 702 East Elk avenue, and are planning on immediately erecting a temporary residence on it. Mr. and Mrs. Neugebauer are well-known to a number of Glendale residents, who will be pleased to know of their plans to make their future home in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Neugebauer's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kresling, have bought the adjoining lot, upon which they will erect a five-room house soon.

Scott Seaton Visitor at James Neill Home

Scott Seaton, a Berkeley real estate operator, was a visitor here yesterday at the James Neill home, 126 West Lomita avenue. Messrs. Neill and Seaton were members of the former's stock company at the Burbank theatre in 1900 when Los Angeles boasted of 90,000 population and Glendale was a mere village of a 1,000 or less people. Mr. Seaton, who is a nephew of Henry E. Huntington, was amazed at the growth of this city. He also called on Harry Duffield, the veteran stock actor in Los Angeles, who formerly had a home here.

RETURNS TO PORTLAND

Mrs. J. F. Wilde of Portland, Oregon, who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. A. K. Crawford of 301 North Cedar street for the past two months, left yesterday for her home.

Walter Lyman Brown Tells of Task In Relief Work Assigned by Hoover

Expressing confidence that the American relief mission will be successful in succoring starving Russia, the following illuminative interview with Walter Lyman Brown, son of Mrs. J. D. Brown of 406 North Maryland avenue, is furnished The Glendale Evening News today by United Press cable and leased wire:

By ED L. KEEN
United Press Staff Correspondent

LONDON, Aug. 3—America's food army is already mobilized, ready for its invasion of soviet Russia to relieve the famine victims.

Supplies are stacked high in food warehouses in central Europe and the doors will be opened as soon as the soviet officials release American prisoners, in accordance with the demand of the United States, Walter Lyman Brown, in charge of the relief work here, declared today.

Mr. Brown, with one member of his staff, is due in Riga soon to confer with Maxim Gorky, Russian novelist and head of the Russian relief organization.

As soon as the American terms are fulfilled, including argeement to the food administration's "bill of rights" in addition to release of the prisoners, active relief operations will begin, Mr. Brown said.

"I do not anticipate any hitch in our preliminary negotiations with the bolsheviki at Riga," said Brown. "I expect we will probably feed 1,000,000 children. We are figuring now on the amount of transports necessary to transport the food from our warehouses to the famine districts."

Mrs. Robert Storm Is Hostess on Birthdays of Son and Daughter

Mrs. Robert Storm of 354 West Wilson avenue entertained Tuesday afternoon in honor of the eighth birthday of her son, Bobby, and the fourth birthday of her little daughter, Emmy Lou. A number of little guests spent the afternoon playing merry games and were later served a delicious supper of ices and cakes and chocolate. Rubber balls were used as favors.

While kiddies romped Mrs. Storm entertained some of their mothers by showing them the beatuiful collection of costumes, china, pictures and tapestry she brought from China, where the Storms lived for several years.

The little guests who helped Bobby and Emmy Lou celebrate their birthdays included Mary Frances Thompson, Ethel Thompson, Starr Yale, Burnell Yarick, Sanders Russell and Bennie Storm.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Davis Are Hosts at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Davis of 118 West Colorado street entertained a number of old-time friends as dinner guests last evening. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Cornwell of Pomona, Mr. and Mrs. George Mastel and children of Ontario, Mr. and Mrs. H. Beaver and daughter of Ontario, Mr. and and Mrs. Chandler Cornwell and daughter Alice of Anaheim, Mrs. Lewis Swartz and daughter Susanne of Newton, Kan.; Mrs. M. E. Blyth, George Blyth and Mrs. S. E. Doughty of Glendale and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Comes From Wisconsin, Buys Residence Here

Emil T. Seodenglasez, an attorney, formerly of Kewaunee, Wisc., arrived in Glendale with his family, July 23, having made the trip west by motor and spent several days camping at the Welch camp grounds. After looking over the surrounding cities he decided that Glendale was an ideal spot for their home and consequently purchased a house at 426 West Myrtle street.

Another family that has recently purchased real estate in Glendale is that of John Tronosky of Davenport, Iowa. The Welch camp grounds are proving popular with many people and through it new residents are being obtained for Glendale, records show.

MOTORS TO TOPANGA

Ray Wollcott of 312 West Colorado street motored to Topanga Canyon Sunday.

MARGARET E. DICK GIVEN SURPRISE BY PARTY OF FRIENDS

Every Self-Invited Guest Is a Former Resident of McPherson, Kan.

Miss Margaret E. Dick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dick of 309 North Louise street, was the recipient of a pleasant surprise last night when a party of thirty-five friends from Los Angeles, Hollywood and Pasadena "dropped in" to honor the popular young lady, who is soon to become a bride. The gay crowd arrived in a body, having parked their machines in the next block in order to "sneak into" the Dick residence.

The strange coincidence of the gathering was the fact that all of the thirty-five self-invited guests were former residents of McPherson, Kansas, which was the home town of the Dick family. Most of them had been neighbors in that city more than twenty-five years, and had known the bride-elect all of her life.

The evening was enjoyed in an impromptu musical program, several short speeches and a general social "get-together". Miss Dick complied with the requests of her friends and admirers by the beautiful rendering of several vocal selections.

During the evening Hon. Frank Gratlan, former member of the Kansas state legislature, gave a brief talk, at the end of which be presented Miss Dick with an elaborately designed silver Sheffield steak plate which was a gift from all of those present.

Those who took part in the novel surprise party were Mr. and Mrs. Judge Earle; Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Davis; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gratton; Mr. and Mrs. Willam Mitchell; Mr. and Mrs. William McGiffert; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sade; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Preston; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beam; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Means; Mesdames Helen Kinney, E. G. Clark, Mary Maeyers, George M. Crow, H. A. Boggs and L. G. Hodson; Misses Lulu Maeyers, Amie Means; Edna Earle, Gertrude Crow and Mary Hodson; Charles L. Crow.

Miss Dick, who is well known among Glendale's younger social set, will leave Friday evening for San Francisco, where she will become the bride of Ralph Prenland of that city at high noon Saturday. After the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Prenland will spend several weeks in San Francisco, following which they will come to this city to make their permanent home. Mr. Penland is employed by the Western Union Telegraph company at the Bay City.

R. J. Vaughn Leaves on Extended Journey

R. J. Vaughn, "emergency man" of the local public service department, left yesterday with his wife and baby on an extended tour of the east and middle west. The trip is being made via automobile, and will last about six weeks.

The first destination point is Dallas, Texas, where Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn will spend a week visiting friends and relatives. Following that they will go to Little Rock, St. Louis, Kansas City and Chicago, planning to remain two weeks in the Windy City.

On the return trip stopovers will be made at Denver, Salt Lake City, San Francisco and other smaller cities. They will return to Glendale about September 15.

Mrs. T. M. Furst Has Luncheon for Friends

Mrs. T. M. Furst of 505 North Jackson street entertained with a luncheon at her home yesterday. The guests were Mrs. W. E. Evans, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones, Miss Mayme Lee Evans and Katherine Evans, who motored up from Hermosa Beach for the occasion, Mrs. Lucius A. Phillips, Mrs. M. E. Smith, Geraldine Phillips and Anna Ewell Phillips of Los Angeles, Mrs. F. W. Pigg and Billy Pigg of Glendale. The center of attraction was the new member of the family, Thomas Martin Furst, Jr.

J. P. Steele Returning From Trip to Chicago

Today's World News In Brief

(By United Press to Glendale Evening News)

UNITED STATES PROPOSES ARMISTICE DAY FOR MEET

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The United States has proposed November 11, Armistice Day, to the powers as the date for the opening of the Washington disarmament and Pacific conference, it was said today. No agreement as to the date, has as yet been reached, however.

DENIES ENGLAND URGING POSTPONEMENT OF MEETING

LONDON, Aug. 3.—Austin Chamberlain, replying to a question in commons today, denied that Britain was urging postponement of the Washington disarmament conference. The question was asked as a result of reports that Britain was attempting to delay the negotiations.

BAG BREAKS FROM AIR CRAFT; FALLS THROUGH HOUSE

DENVER, Colo., Aug. 3.—Two persons narrowly escaped death here late yesterday when a heavy sand bag broke loose from an airplane at a height of four thousand feet and crashed through a two-story residence. The projectile completely wrecked one side of the roof, a bedroom and part of another room. It missed Mrs. E. M. Cuttle of Fulton, Mo., and her sister, Mrs. R. H. Keithley by a few inches. Breaking of the cord which held the bag to a small pilot parachute caused the accident.

WALL OF WATER SWEEPS THROUGH CITY; NO DEATHS

CANON CITY, Colo., Aug. 3.—Thousands of dollars damage was done to truck gardens and to property here last night when a wall of water fourteen feet high swept down the narrow Arkansas river canon through Canon City. Residents of the lower portion of the city were forced to flee before the flood. Railroad traffic was at a standstill for several hours. There was no loss of life. A cloudburst in the Royal Gorge caused the flood.

HARDING IS FOUR MILES FROM NEAREST TELEPHONE

LANCASTER, N. H., Aug. 3.—President Harding today was far from the cares of state. The nearest telephone was four miles away. The president is enjoying the splendid isolation on Mount Prospect, a peak of the White mountains near here. It is part of the famous Presidential range, several of its mountains being named for early presidents. A padlocked gate at the foot of the mountain which is entirely owned by Secretary Weeks, keeps curious folks from going up the four mile road that winds its way around Mount Prospect to the cozy lodge at the summit.

IRISH REPUBLICAN ARMY IS VIRTUALLY DEMOBILIZED

LONDON, Aug. 3.—The Irish republican army has virtually been demobilized, it was learaned here today. This was considered a further indication that peace terms between the Sinn Fein and the British government have been practically agreed upon in secret and that only a formal announcement remains to be made. It is expected that the Sinn Fein parliament will approve any terms satisfactory to President De Valera and other leaders. The British parliament was still "in the dark" as to the peace negotiations today. The cabinet refused to divulge the terms to commons, even in secret session.

RAIL ISSUES FEATURE STOCK MARKET OPENING TODAY

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—The rail issues featured the stock market in early trading today. Northern Pacific made a new high at 80½ and Norfolk and Western sold up to 99, also a new high. The equipment issues failed to keep pace with the rails. Heretofore there has been noticed a marked tendency to hold the rails and equipment in the same moves. Steel common was unchanged in early trading at 76, but Bethlehem B gained ¼ at 52¼. Republic made an early high above 49. In the oil group Mexican Petroleum was up ¼ at 109½ while Asphalt ran up to a new high on the move at 55¾. A demand for tobacco stocks around noon drove Tobacco Products up to 80. United Drug rallied after hovering around 54 and rose to 56.

MANY MOURN PASSING OF CARUSO, GREATEST TENOR

NAPLES, Aug. 3.—Mourners for Enrico Caruso thronged the streets about the hotel where his body lay today, and paced slowly past the church of Santa Maria Gracia, where his funeral mass will be held. Every hour appeared to intensify the grief of the world at the death of its most celebrated singer. Cablegrams of condolence came to thte widow, formerly Miss Dorothy Park Benjamin, of New York, from both hemispheres. Included among them were official messages of sympathy from the royal Italian government. Police lines were established before the hotel to control the throngs which stood for hours, bareheaded, gazing silently at the white walls of the edifice in which their beloved Caruso's heart had ceased to beat. Hundreds viewed Caruso's body as it lay in state today. The widow was reported to be bearing up well under the shock. She probably will return to New York soon after the funeral. Naples and all Italy are in deepest mourning today. Flags were at half staff, and many buildings were draped in black crepe. Business was virtually suspended.

SEVEN ACQUITTED PLAYERS BARRED FROM BIG LEAGUE

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—The seven former members of the White Sox ball club, acquitted of charges of throwing the 1919 world series by a jury, were banned today from ever playing professional league baseball again. Judge Landis, high commissioner of baseball, and Charles Comiskey, owner of the White Sox club, sealed the baseball fate of the "Black Sox." Comiskey said the seven men would never play on his team again. Judge Landis issued a statement of "rules" covering the case in which he barred them from reinstatement. Judge Landis said: "Regardless of the verdict of juries, no player who throws a ball game; no player who undertakes or promises to throw a ball game; no player who sits in a conference with a bunch of crooked players and gamblers, where the ways and means of throwing ball games are planned and discussed and does not promptly tell his club about it, will never play professional baseball. Of course, I do not know that any of these men will apply for reinstatement, but if they do, those are at least a few rules that would be enforced. Just keep in mind, that regardless of the verdict of juries, baseball is entirely competent to protect itself against crooks both inside and outside of the game."

GLENDALE'S GROWTH SHOWN FROM GAS CONNECTIONS

More Than 7000 Feet of Service Pipe, Total of 131 Meters In July

Indicative of the maintained growth of Glendale is the monthly summary of the Southern California Gas company's activities here.

According to H. P. Courtney, district construction foreman, more than 7,000 feet of new service pipe was laid for seventy-nine connections on which 131 meters were installed during July. This is very close to the June record of eighty-four connections.

Approximately 1,200 feet of new mains were installed by Mr. Courtney's crews which are kept on the jump by the constancy of the local building program. A test yesterday showed the engineering department that the local gas lines are in excellent condition.

Visits Friends Here

Harry Ross, formerly connected with the Southern California Gas company here as efficiency expert, but now division manager at Fresno, is paying a visit to his friends here at present.

It was Mr. Ross who installed the natural gas equipment at the Tropico Potteries, Inc., plant nine years ago. At night the light from these kilns can be seen throughout the San Fernando valley.

From the public service department of the city practically the same story of growth is recorded. During the month of July ninety-three new water services were installed and 150 additional electric light meters set. There are now a total of 5453 water meters and 6240 electric meters. On the basis of five persons to every water meter, there are more than 22,000 residents here. However, a few of these reside in Casa Verdugo, Eagle Rock and Los Angeles.

Miss Hazel Myers and Robert Ford to Wed

The regular meeting of the K. K. K. was turned topsy-turvy Tuesday night when the hostess, Miss Hazel Myers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Myers, of 1316 South Central surprised the club members by announcing her engagement.

The manner of announcement was very clever. The guests were seated at the dining table and noticed that the bon-bon baskets were tied with pink paper so that it was necessary to force an entrance.

Inside the tiny baskets, beside the candies they discovered little pink hearts containing the great news, of Miss Myers' betrothal to Robert Ford, son of Rev. E. E. Ford, pastor of the First Baptist church. The wedding will be some time in September, but the date is still a secret.

The club members present at the announcement were Miss Alice Lookabaugh, Miss Delia Young, Miss Meriam Rich, Miss Margaret McPherson, Miss Marian Grigg and Miss Ruth Stanford of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Sunkes Back From Auto Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Sunkes and two boys, David and Robert, of 331 Cameron place, recently returned from a 1300-mile automobile tour that took them through numerous points of interest in central and northern California. Although they camped out at several resorts en route the principal stopping point was Lake Tahoe, they having enjoyed a week's outing at that famous recreational center. They also visited American river, Yosemite and various other points of interest.

Mr. Sunkes "knocked on wood" when he announced that the entire distance was traversed without the slightest mishap.

VISITORS FROM CHILI

Mrs. Robert E. Davis of 118 South Kenwood street has as her house guests Mr. and Mrs. Jack Worthen and four children of Rancauga, Chili. Mr. Davis is a machinist who has just finished a three-year contract in South America. He is very much interested in Glendale and may locate here if he finds a good opening in his line.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock for Margaret Fern McMullen, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. McMullen of 724 Avenue 66, Highland Park, at Pulliam & Kiefer undertaking parlors. Burial took place at Forest Lawn Memorial Park.

The thrifty woman today is the woman who can get all these things done economically and still have time for recreation and self-improvement.

To handle your washing with real thrift—send it to this laundry.

PRICE OF TEARS

"Will you take $35 for that cow?" said Farmer Scroggins.

"Can't do it," was Farmer Johnson's reply.

"But yesterday you told me you'd sell her for $35."

"I know I did, but I'll have to back out."

"What's the matter?"

"You see, the cow belongs to my daughter, and she says she will sob herself into hysterics if I sell the cow. It would break her heart."

"All right—it's no sale, then."

"I say."

"Well, what is it?"

"Make it $40 and we'll let her sob."

SAVED HIMSELF

'DEAR KATIE' LEARNS SOMETHING ABOUT STOLEN JEWELS

Or Is Missing Necklace? Well, Anyway, This Is Somewhat Mysterious

GLENDALE, Aug. 3, 1921.

Dear Katie: Well, today I got up feelin awful blue, but, anyway, I went down to the office as is usual and I walked up to the boss with a slow and shufflin tread like as if I had a date with a dentist. And right away he says to me, well, now, what's the matter? Well, I says, kinda off hand as how I ain't got no artikle today to write to Katie about.

In this Put and Take struggle for a existence as a strivin reporter I says as how I have wrote to Katie about everything from comets to conventions, includin everything that Glendale has got, ain't got, ought to get, never had, will have and hadn't ought to have and now there ain't nothin left to write about exceptin maybe as how Glendale ain't got no orphan's hospital for stray cats and dogs and why not.

Then, Katie, the boss busts in as how I ain't never said nothin about our nice public library and he says I better go over and write a artikle about it and see what's goin on, if anything.

And so I did.

Looks at Pictures—Why?

Now, Katie, you know as how I ain't never been in a public library before or since, but I walked right in and I went over and I set down to one of them big tables and I picked up a picture book to look at, just for a excuse, so as I wouldn't get throwed out of the place for being a loafer or somethin.

Say, Katie, regardless of the facts as how there was a lady behind the counter and a lot of customers settin around the room, that place was as quiet as a barber shop on a Sunday morning.

Everybody was going around on tip toes, whispering and lookin kinda sad and down hearted about somethin and right away I begun to wonder if somebody was dead or what's the matter.

Then all to onct a fair maiden come in and her and the lady behind the counter begun to whisper at each other about somethin and actin kinda mysterious. Then the fair maiden went away and a man come in and he begun to whisper to the lady and I couldn't stand it no more, so I walked over kinda close to em and I heard the man whisper to the lady as has she got the Missing Necklace and she whispers right back at him as how, No, she ain't got it yet.

Well, then he went away and the next customer was a little kid and he whispers to the lady, has she got The Four Horsemen of the Apple Sauce.

Hears Thunders of Silence

Well, Katie, with everybody whispering like that, it begun to get on my nerves and the awful silence was worse than any noise I ever heard in a boiler factory.

So, finally, at last, I decided as how I better get a book and get out of the place and be done with it, so I went over to a book case and I picked out a book which the same looked kinda worn off on the edges like maybe a book worm had chewed it or somethin. The name on the book Katie was, 'How To Get Thin Without Callin In the Undertaker."

Well, I took the book over to the lady and I whisperes in her pink ears like it was a secret and I says I guess I will take this one. Have you a card she says to me.

Yes, I says, and I give her one of my callin cards, Katie, with my name on it and I says as how I am a strivin reporter and how much is the book.

Oh, she says, we don't sell no books; we just lend em out and she whispers as how I would have to have a card or I couldn't get no book. Say, Katie, right away I guess I turned as white as a hand full of lilies.

I got so rattled I didn't know if I was writin a artikle or was arrested for shop liftin. I took off my hat so I could think better and then I says to her, as there is my card and what more does she want?

Yes, she says, but she don't know me. Well, I says, that's all even, cause I don't know her either. Then, Katie, she picked up the book and I couldn't tell if she was going to hand it to me or throw it at me. I didn't wait to see, but I went out the front door of that there library like I'd been sent for and I come home.

Well, Katie, we got a nice library, but I ain't going to rite no artikle about it. Instead of that I'm going to write a book someday which the same will be titled "What I Don't Know About Libraries," if anything.

Yours—if you got a card,
E. C. HALE.

The Glendale police department has been notified that Monday night burglars broke into the Tujunga Drug company at Tujunga, making away with several hundred dollars' worth of merchandise. The loot included numerous watches, pins and other articles of jewelry, kodaks and cameras, four revolvers, cigars and cigarettes and many other articles.

NOTED NOVEL FROM KATHLEEN NORRIS IS PICTURIZED

'Poor Dear Margaret Kirby' Is Being Presented at Glendale Theatre

The characters in "Poor Dear Margaret Kirby", the Selznick feature which is at the Glendale Theatre today and tomorrow are members of the most exclusive New York society, yet their failings and virtues are to be found in every community. This humanness, which made Kathleen Norris' novel such a success, has been carefully preserved, it is said, in the picturization by Lewis Allen Browne. Elaine Hammerstein is the star.

Loss of money, treachery among friends, and malicious gossip of enemies combine to make the life of Margaret Kirby a regular little inferno after her husband's business fails and she is thrown on her own resources to support her family because on the verge of the failure her husband attempts suicide which results in complete paralysis. He is confined to his rooms and Margaret keeps from him the truth about their fniancial difficulties, and earns their livelihood through keeping "paying guests".

"The Tourist", a funny comedy featuring Jimmy Aubrey; Screen Snaps and the latest Pathe News round out the bill.

A CLOSE-UP

Gen. Bliss said at a dinner in Washington:

"Of course a good many tallish stories were spread abroad during the world war. The German atrocities, for example—children with both hands cut off and so on—and then the angels at Mons—well, these things were rather exaggerated.

"'You are positive you saw those angels, are you?' an old lady said to a private. 'Were you close to them?'

"'Close?' said the private. 'Why, ma'am a pal o' mine was so close he spotted an aunt of his among 'em.'"

J. W. M. Burton Wins Suit Over Auto Crash

A $10,000 damage suit, resulting from an auto crash in which an automobile owned by J. W. M. Burton of this city figured two years ago, was thrown out of court in Los Angeles last week after it was shown that the parties suing Mr. Burton were on a joyride and collided with the latter's car which was driven by Fred Smith.

The plaintiff, a woman, tried to prove that Mr. Burton was in the car at the time of the accident and so testified, but luckily the local real estate operator was able to present witnesses who were with him here on the night of the crash, thus establishing an alibi. He had loaned the car to Mr. Smith—a favor which has proved very costly as the result of extended litigation.

PROVED ITS WORTH

Mr. Biggs was planning to build a motor shed in his garden, so he bought an expensive saw. He left his office early the next afternoon with the intention of starting the job. He put on a pair of overalls and went out. An hour later or so he flung himself down into a chair in disgust.

"That new saw I bought isn't worth two-pence," he stormed. "Why the thing wouldn't cut butter."

His small son Harry looked up in surprise.

"Oh, yes it would daddy," he said earnestly. "Why, Ted and me sawed a whole brick in two with it this morning."

The star shell may take the place of the searchlight in searching out enemy craft if experiments now being conducted by the navy department meet with success. Flashless powder used in propelling the shells from the guns and the flash of shells themselves as they explode will light up the sea for a wide area without betraying the exact location of the ship projecting them.

During the world war, 19,000 tractors went into Canada duty free, at a cost of $17,000,000.

Mr. and Mrs. Peck's Grandson Is Very ill

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Peck are very anxious about the health of their little grandson, who is dangerously ill at San Diego. The baby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Peck, Mrs. Peck being well known in the Reading Circle in Glendale. When he was born his grandparents were informed of the event by a most novel telegram:

"I arrived on the Golden State Limited at 6 o'clock Flag Day. Daddy and mother and sisters are just wild over me. I weigh seven pounds, but I am some boy. Dad and I will soon show these women who is boss now.

'Your grandson,
"JAMES ELVIDGE PECK."

SO HE COULD SMILE

A small boy was sent to church by his father with a nickel and a dollar bill in his pocket.

"You are to put what you please in the offering box, my boy. Listen to the sermon and make your offering in accordance with the impression made upon you."

The boy had returned. "Well, what did you put in the box," his father asked.

"The nickel. I was going to put in the other when I remembered what the clergyman said in his sermon."

"What was that?"

"The Lord loveth a cheerful giver."

READY TO DIE

Sandy, not feeling well, had consulted a doctor.

Doctor: Do you drink, Sandy?

Sandy: Yes, sir.

Doctor: Well, you must give that up. D'you smoke?

Sandy: Yes, sir.

Doctor: You must give that up, too.

As Sandy went quickly through the office door, the doctor exclaimed:

"You have not paid me for my advice, Sandy."

"I'm not taking it," replied Sandy.

DAVID BLACK HOME IS SETTING FOR UNUSUAL PARTY

Guests Are There From 'Four Corners of Earth' and Enjoy Unique Meeting

A very unique party was held recently at the foothill home of Mr. and Mrs. David Black, 1450 Kenneth road. Guests who enjoyed the hospitality of this home, with its flower-decked rooms and spacious, inviting porch overlooking the valley, were from "the four corners of the earth." It was a missionary party, and several renewed old acquaintance and others made new friends.

Among the guests were Mrs. Lawrence Ward, formerly missionary in Persia, and her daughter, Mrs. Reed, who was born in Persia; Mrs. S. G. Wilson, who was also born in Persia, and who served with her husband for many years in Tabriz; Rev. J. F. Kelley, M. D., wife and daughter of Kachek Hainan, China; Mrs. U. Bercovitz, who has just returned from China; Rev. David Tappan, who sails this month to resume his duties as principal of Hainan Christian school; Rev. E. D. Chapin of Chenchow, China; Miss Marjorie M. Judson of Shuntefu, China; representatives from the work in Japan included Reverned Julius Soper and wife, Miss Soper, Mr. and Mrs. Harshall Hayes and Miss Spencer; Miss Louise Hayes of chosen home missionaires; Miss Margaret Tappan, teacher in Wasatch Academy, Utah; Miss Norman, teacher at the Indian Training School at Tucson, Ariz.

Beautiful music, furnished by a trio consisting of Miss Marjorie Bailey at the violin, Miss Esther Black at the saxophone, and Miss Bonnie Jean Lockwood at the piano was enjoyed by the guests, after which tempting refreshments were served.

Folks From Nebraska In Annual Gathering at Long Beach Aug. 6

Several hundred local Nebraskans are preparing to attend the regular annual summer picnic and reunion which takes place at Long Beach on Saturday, August 6. The affair, which will be held at Bixby Park, will be the largest gathering ever held by the Nebraska state society of Southern California, according to those in charge. More than 25,000 Nebraskans are expected to be in attendance.

Col. F. H. Rublee, president of the society, is in charge of all arrangements for the occasion, and he has prepared an excellent program for the day's entertainment. William Jennings Bryan, Jr., and Hon. W. H. "Billy" Thompson will give the principal addresses of the day.

The day's activities will be confined to registering from various counties in the morning, dinners at the noon hour and a program of music and oratory in the afternoon. Nebraskans from all parts of Southern California are urged to attend.

Jack London Memorial Library Will Be Built

SANTA ROSA—The Jack London Memorial library, built at Glen Ellen, Jack London's "Valley of the Moon," will be Sonoma county's tribute to the writer who produced much of his finest fiction in that region.

Work will start shortly on the building which is the result of private subscriptions, obtained through the efforts of the Glen Ellen Women's Improvement club.

The site selected for the building is just north of the road which leads from Glen Ellen to the famous London ranch, and part of the construction will be of stone from the quarry on the ranch.

Complete works of Jack London, exquisitely bound, will be placed in a prominent place in the library, and one room will be devoted to exhibits of relics and curios collected by Jack London on his voyages to the South Seas.

The library will also contain valuable material on the Yukon country, the South Sea islands and an extensive biographical collection of works on London, his life work and environment.

Urge County to Buy Resort for Park Use

SANTA MARIA—A movement is under way here to have the board of supervisors purchase Zaca lake, near Los Olivos, for $20,000 for a public park.

Lake Zaca is a well known pleasure resort of this district. The move is being rushed through because a private club of Los Angeles sportsmen is reported to be negotiating for the lake. They are said to be planning to fence it off and use it for a private gun club.

Alaska's white population decreased 23.4 per cent between 1910 and 1920 according to the census bureau announcement.

Watching Scoreboard

Yesterday's hero: Bernie Neis, Boorklyn's little outfielder; pinch-hitting in the ninth, drove in the runs that beat the Reds, 4 to 3.

Five runs scored in the seventh on a single by Lavan, a double by Clemons, a pass to Schultz and Stock's triple, gave the Cards a 5 to 4 win over the Giants.

Nilan's triple and a single by Rice enabled Washington to beat Detroit, 5 to 4. It was the Senators' eighth win in a row.

Timely hitting in both games gave the Browns a double victory over the Red Sox at 8 to 5 and 5 to 2.

Both New York Clubs Stick Within Reach of League Leadership

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—If the Giants had a Cooper or an Alexander. If the Yanks had a manager. If Pittsburg would only get the expected collapse. If the Indians would lay down once in a while.

"Iffing" of this variety is occupying the time of New Yorkers at the start of another week of the pennant races which finds both Gotham clubs within that slight step of the lead which they seem unable to negotiate.

The Giants and the Yankees are right on top of the Pirates and Indians, but both seem to suffer a lapse from form when they get the chance to forge ahead.

Pittsburg hit the rocks last week, winning only one out of five games. Meanwhile the Giants were closing in rapidly by winning six out of seven of their games. They worked into a tie with the Pirates, but when the opportunity to leap ahead came McGraw's men slumped and were trimmed twice yesterday by the Reds.

Being set back by the Reds, however, is not the ignomity it would have been earlier in the season, for Pat Moran has in his former champions a vastly different club from the one he started the race with. The Reds won four of their seven starts last week and played a snappy variety of baseball.

The Pirates have a hard series this week with the Boston Braves. The Hub club slowed up slightly last week by winning three out of five games, but they are losing none of the class that makes them tough meat for any pennant appetites.

For the immediate future the Pirates will be a little better off than the Giants as they are on their home grounds for a stay and the New Yorkers have to hit the rest of the western circuit.

If the present "croocial" series between the Yanks and the Indians means anything the pennant depends entirely on pitching, with the Yanks a slight favorite.

Stands on Chair to Give 'Giant' Clubbing

DENVER—J. P. Kelly, six feet four inches tall and full of "hooch" picked on Policeman William Valliance, standing five feet two. Valliance stood on a chair and clubbed Kelly into unconsciousness.

"Do you believe in pre-natal influence?" asked the bachelor. "Most assuredly," replied the married man. "For instance, my baby is very wakeful at nights, and I firmly believe it is just because my wife used to insist upon sitting up and waiting for me to come home."

GLENDALE CAT CLUB TO HAVE EXHIBIT AT VALLEY FAIR

Local Organization Sponser of Display; Horse Show at Night Is Feature

The directors of the San Fernando Valley Fair, to be held from September 13 to September 18, have received among their latest applications one from the Glendale Cat club to sponsor a cat show in connection with the fair. It was decided to add this event to those already billed for the fair. The club has agreed to furnish at least fifty entries of thoroughbred cats from all points in Southern California.

Of unusual interest will be the horse show which is to take place at night. All contestants, including huntsmen, polomen, cowboys, cowgirls, and all attendants, ringmasters and grooms must be attired in the latest mode, and unless so attired will be barred from participation in the show. The horse show is being managed by Hamilton Bassett, who has staged horse shows in every part of the world and will endeavor to make this show the classiest event ever witnessed by the western horse world.

Another item of importance in connection with the San Fernando Valley Fair is the fact that the endorsement of the Los Angeles Board of Supervisors has been received, making this show the official county fair.

In Southern California

Price of Gasoline Drops

Gasoline is now quoted by the Union Oil company at 23 cents. This is a drop of 2 cents and will mean a savings of several thousand dollars daily to Southern California motorists. Overproduction of crude oil is reported as the cause, and a year ago there was an underproduction.

John Brown to Make Drive

The Rev. John Brown, who conducted evangelistic meetings here last spring, is to open a drive for Christians in the Westlake, Pico and Wilshire districts of Los Angeles soon, according to Dr. Gustav A. Brieglieb.

Expect Benefits From Bill

Two thousand men in Southern California who are being trained under the federal board for vocational education and being treated by the United States public health service and many others whose compensation is still awaiting action by the war risk bureau will be benefitted by the provisions of the Sweet bill which was passed Monday by the United States senate. President Harding still has to sign the measure. A three-cornered fight is looming for the directorship of the one office in Los Angeles to handle the activities of all three bureaus.

Bars Policemen From Films

Cops in Los Angeles hereafter will not appear in films or engage in other lucrative side lines. Chief of Police Charles E. Jones says they needs must be ready for riot call. The force is much too small, he says.

Oil Workers' Wages Cut

California oil workers' wages have been cut a dollar a day. This without notice from the operators who refused federal mediation and declared for open shop conditions. The price of board in the fields has been reduced 25 cents a day to prove to the men that living prices have gone down.

Wife Accuses Burbank Banker

Frederick F. Scribner of Burbank, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants' bank, is charged by his wife with so many "girl affairs" which it is said he wrote about while she was in the east that the city papers are giving columns to this domestic scandal. Edna Crane, the banker's confidante in business, is among those named. Susie Clug, a maid, also is on the list. Evidently Mr. Scribner was not discriminating in his lovemaking, or his wife is incorrect in her allegations.

NO PARTICULAR HURRY

Mrs. Speedup was of the house-proud kind, and very methodical in selecting her hours and days in getting through the work in the house.

One day she engaged a domestic servant who had just arrived from Erin's isle.

Both mistress and maid got on well together in the work.

After a fortnight's tuition the good lady thought that Bridget could manage by herself.

"So we will partake breakfast at 8 in the morning," Mrs. Speedup said, as she handed over the control of the house duties to Bridget.

"All roight, mum; if O'm not up, don't wait."

War Over Trade Is Making Fine Highways

SACRAMENTO—A war is on between Stockton and Sacramento for Amador county's trade, as a result Amador county will probably get more than its full share of good roads.

The chambers of commerce of Sacramento and Stockton are both starting concerted drives for good roads. Stockton wants to have the Stockton-Goose valley road completed. Sacramento wants the highway completed between Sacramento and Ione.

Stockton declares that the Goose Valley road is the only natural outlet of Amador county, and Stockton the logical business center.

Work has already begun on the highway between Ione and Galt. Contracts have been let for both the east and west ends of the road. The Sacramento chamber is also calling for road improvement between Jackson and Ione, and declares that Sacramento is Amador county's logical outlet.

Wiseacres, however, are predicting that when both Stockton and Sacramento get done improving Amador county's roads, it will be so easy to go to either city that both will about break even as far as trade goes.

Brass Lure on Line Captures Big Muskrat

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—Herbert L. Demallie put a brass lure on his line and dropped it into Hemlock Lake. In a few minutes he had a strike. His fish was a large muskrat.

EVENING SPOILT

They were discussing at the Century Club the plays of Strindberg, Schnitzler, Drinkwater and Brieux.

"Why the deuce," said the novelist Robert W. Chambers, with a yawn—"why the deuce are highbrow plays so insufferably dull?"

"At a Strindberg play in Greenwich Village the other night a woman in front of me poked her husband in the ribs and whispered fiercely:

"'I do wish you would pay more attention to the play George. This play is as good as a sermon.'

"'It sure is,' George muttered drowsily, 'only the orchestra wakes me up between acts!'"

A woman who has been on a party wire never feels at home when she moves into a house with a private phone.

'How to Wed' Course Is Proposed by Judge

CHICAGO—A matrimonial course in high school as a preventive for domestic unhappiness was proposed today by Judge Harry A. Lewis. Judge Lewis made the suggestion to Edwin S. Davis, president of the Board of Education. In his letter the judge explained in ten months he had heard 2000 divorce cases and believed domestic troubles were largely due to ignorance.

"Matrimony is an art and science and should be well understood by the youths of the land before they undertake its responsibilities," he said.

A "wedding professor" added to the Chicago high school teaching staff would enable the boys and girls to be prepared for married life, he said.

Says No Woman Can Love a Man Over 47

NEW YORK—Samuel G. Martin has been suing for divorce for seven years and in that time has taken his wife out 800 evenings, she testified. She added no woman could love a man aged over 47.

IKE'S BRIGHT IDEA

When their father died Ike, Abe and Benjamin found that he had left each of them $500. Benjamin decided to open a tailor's shop; the others thought they would wait a bit and see how he got on.

As he did quite well Abe took the shop two doors away and thinking to profit by Benjamin's success had it decorated in exactly the same style. Each bore the sign, "Mosenstein, the Famous Tailor."

After a few months the cautious Ike decided that he, too, would become a tailor. He took the shop between those of his brothers and consulted the same decorator.

"I suppose you want something striking and original?" said the decorator.

"Yes," said Ike, "I vant a shop with von great big door. Over it you can write: "Mosenstein, Tailor, Main Entrance."

The jerkless train has arrived in Sweden. By employing anti-friction bearings, technically known as disk bearings, in place of the present journal bearings on passenger cars, the resistance at starting cars is so reduced that from ten to fifteen per cent of the pulling force required with journal bearings will cause the train to move.

WINDOW CARDS FOR EXPOSITION HERE UPON DISPLAY

Original Art Work Featured by Director General of Business Men's Show-

Window cards for the Glendale Merchants' exposition now are making their appearance in local business houses and considerable comment is being made of the work in red and black ink. The design is original with H. Elmo LaBreque, director general of the Pacific Coast Exposition company, which is staging the show under the auspices of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. LaBreque is in Pomona this week closing a contract with the merchants there for staging an industrial fair to follow the exposition here which opens the night of August 27 and closes September 3 at midnight. Marvin Greathouse, publicity manager of the organization, is an alumnus of Pomona college and is aiding Mr. LaBreque in the campaign there.

Demand for Space

Robert Cavenagh, who is arranging the details of the local exposition, states that there is but 125 feet of runway space left for exhibitors. He is arranging for a large number of prizes and gifts to be given away during the week and he estimates that fully $1000 in souvenirs will be distributed free.

The opening of the exposition is to be made a most auspicious affair with many prominent people in attendance. Already it promises to be a much larger show than the one staged recently in Pasadena.

"It will be a revelation to the citizens of Glendale," said Mr. Cavenagh today. "Really, one cannot appreciate the enterprise of this community without personally interviewing the business men as I have done. The prosperity here is most remarkable."

Claim Bravest Man In World Is Found

MEXICO CITY, via Nogales, Aug. 3.—The bravest man in the world!

He is an unnamed Indian, according to American and Mexican oil operators of the Amatlan oil field, who have raised a fund of 100,000 pesos to be presented to him as a reward for an act of heroism said to be unparalleled in the oil industry.

When the great Amatlan fire of ten days ago was at its heighth and the district was a sea of flame and gasses, an unknown Indian volunteered to don a suit of asbestos and close the well and pipe line valves.

The suit was made especially for the occasion. The Indian donned it, and waded into the sea of fire. In a few minutes he staggered out, scorched, blistered and almost suffocated—but he had closed the valves. The great fire died out in a few hours from lack of fuel.

The Indian disappeared after receiving medical treatment, but has since been found. The sum to be presented him by the operators in the Amatlan field will make him wealthy for the remainder of his life.

Well, Man Is Known by Company He Keeps, Eh?

UKIAH, Cal.—One man in Ukiah started out to rescue lunatics, and by the time he had finished he thought he was one himself.

The episode was revealed today by authorities of the Mendocino State hospital which burned here recently. During the fire a large number of the lunatics in the violent ward of the hospital escaped and disappeared.

One excited citizen of Ukiah roused up and ran out to help fight the fires, clad only in pajamas.

While he was courageously battling the flames, bedraggled with water and smirched with cinders, he was suddenly seized and dragged away. He had been apprehended by a posse looking for the escaped "violents."

"I was lined with a batch of raving nuts," he said. He argued an hour before he obtained his release.

"By the time I got through," he told his friends, "I thought I was one myself."

"It is expected that the full body of the Dail Eireann will endorse the cabinet's decision. The most difficult step now is to get De Valera and Craig (premier of Ulster) together."

Baseball Prices Not to Drop at Present, Club Owners Assert

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Reductions of baseball prices seem improbable at the present time. Club owners are taking the attitude that nothing is wrong with the game, and that the admission prices are satisfactory to the fans.

In New York, where the attendance has slumped in the last two months, the fans gave the high prices as the chief reason for staying away from the Polo Grounds.

Mayor Peters of Boston went so far as to ask Harry Frazee, owner of the Red Sox to reduce prices, but he failed to get an answer.

League officials and club owners still maintain that the business end of the game is normal and that baseball is the cheapest and finest sport available for Americans.

"It is folly to think a reduction in prices would increase attendance. So far this year exceeds last year in attendance by 200,000. A price reduction is unnecessary. The increase has been so small it is insignificant," John Heydler, president of the National league said today.

Statements of the club owners run about the same. William Veeck, president of the Chicago Cubs:

"Price reductions would have no effect on the attendance. Attendance records of past seasons have been shattered by a large majority this year."

Frank J. Navin, owner of the Detroit club:

"Detroit fans have never kicked against prices."

Garry Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati Reds:

"Price reduction is unnecessary, because there is no general kick among the fans. The usual mid-season slump is at hand, but that is all."

Release Americans In Exchange for Supplies

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—First steps to relieve starving Russians were taken with the receipt of assurances that American prisoners would be released by the soviet authorities.

The promises to release the prisoners came to Secretary of Commerce Hoover in a cable from Maxim Gorky. Gorky's cable was a reply to a recent one by Hoover that relief would be held up as long as Americans were imprisoned.

Immediately after receiving the cable Hoover instructed Walter Lyman Brown, European director of the American relief administration in London, to proceed to Riga, but to withhold opening of discussions until American prisoners are actually delivered out of Russia.

Gorky's reply to Hoover's message, dated London, follows:

"Riga transmits following from Maxim Gorky, presented by representative soviet government in Latvia.

"July 28, I have transmitted your proposal to the soviet government seeing that the soviet government alone can discuss the conditions contained therein. I have received from the soviet government that following reply for transmission to you:

" 'The Russian government has acquainted itself with the proposal of Mr. Hoover, made in the name of the American relief administration and finds this proposal quite acceptable as to a basis including the release of the American prisoners.

"The Russian government considers it desirable as soon as possible to fix the precise conditions on which this association (the American relief association) will begin immediate negotiations of its humane intentions to guarantee the feeding, medical treatment and clothing of a million children and invalids. For that purpose the Russian government would consider it useful that Director Brown or another person invested with full powers should carry out negotiations and should immediately come to Moscow, Riga or Reval. The Russian soviet government awaits a speedy reply as to the place and date of these negotiations.

Irvin S. Cobb, the humorous lecturer, on a recent southern tour stopped for dinner at a tiny railway restaurant in a Mississippi village.

"Well, uncle, what's the bill-o'-fare?" he asked the aged colored man who came from the kitchen to look after him.

"De bill o' fare," said the old man, "am ham, eggs, cornbread and coffee."

"Then I'll have ham, eggs, cornbread and coffee, uncle," said Mr. Cobb.

The old waiter bowed and shuffled out. But a moment later he put his head through the doorway again.

"Boss," he said, "how ye gwine have dem eggs—blind or lookin' at ye?"

Bogus Check Artists, Stay Away! Is Warning

SACRAMENTO—Fictitious check artists, steer clear of Central America!

It is no place to operate, at least that section in the immediate neighborhood of Boca Tres Amigos, Valle San Carlos, Costa Rica.

This warning is contained in an appeal to the state board of education from James E. Reynolds, former county superintendent of schools of Ventura county, who lives in the Valle San Carlos, and says that it is too hard to cash even a perfectly good, bona fide state government check.

To cash his check for retirement salary all he has to do is to give it to a peon to take down the San Carlos river, who gives it to another peon who lives there to give to a boatman when he goes to Fort San Carlos on Lake Nicauragua, who in turn gives it to the storekeeper there who sends it across the lake to the nearest bank at Granada. After a month or two Reynolds sometimes hears from the bank, he says.

He asked the board of education to send him his salary in cash, but the state law provides that it be paid by check. Reynolds has been notified that he will have to start his own bank.

HOW HE COULD TRY

A stout passenger alighted from a train at a small station in Scotland. He was a stranger to the village.

After walking the whole length of the poorly lighted platform he failed to discover the way out. Not even a porter could be found and the man was almost in despair when he noticed a ragged urchin peering through the railings, evidently vastly interested in the stranger's appearance.

"I can't seem to get out of this confounded station," said the traveler. "Can you show me the proper way out?"

The lad surveyed his questioner, moved away a yard or two and asked with a grin, "Have you tried sideways?"

Sometimes It's Lake, Sometimes It's Field

SAN FRANCISCO—Where is Tulare lake, and when?

The railroad commission wants to know. Although on all present maps of California it is a refreshingly blue spot, representing 153 square miles, it is "plumb dry," according to County Surveyor Roy May of Kings county, who is furnishing information for the commission's new state map.

As much of the area has been reclaimed and brought under cultivation, May was asked to show the present water boundaries. He replied in two words in pencil on the commission's own letter.

Nevertheless, in periods of high water, when the Kings and Tule rivers are raging torrents, Tulare lake has a disconcerting habit of "coming back," so the commission wants to know when that area is good for grain or good for ducks and how much?

Only Thirty Pounds of His Body Left

OROVILLE—Nichoalus D. Migaikis, a Greek who served in the French army, isn't very much himself any more, according to his claims.

Migaikis claims to have only thirty pounds of his original body left. Migaikis' legs were shot away at Verdun. He was furnished with a pair of cork ones. Previous to this he had been wounded in the abdomen, and part of his stomach shot away. It was replaced by grafting processes.

Despite the effect of the reducing process which has left him a lightweight, bodily, Migiakis is a heavyweight mentally. He has been decorated by seven countries. He is a graduate of a French university and speaks 14 languages, including several little known languages of the Balkans.

SHIRLEY MASON IN 'FLAME OF YOUTH' PALACE GRAND

Story of Love In Peaceful Belgian Countryside Is Told Last Time Today

Tonight's performances offer the last opportunities to see "Flame of Youth", the new Fox production starring Shirley Mason, which has been drawing crowds to the Palace Grand Theatre today. It is a photoplay in which both star and story are excellent. All motion picture "fans" know Miss Mason and her dainty charm by this time, and "Flame of Youth" fits her unique personality better than any other picture in which she has appeared. It is a story of love in the peaceful Belgian countryside, and Howard M. Mitchell, the director, has handled the theme with great fidelity to detail. Buster Keaton also is being featured in a return showing of his comedy success, "The Scarecrow". Tomorrow May McAvoy holds forth in "A Private Scandal".

Rev. James S. O'Neill Goes to Hot Springs

Another severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism forced Rev. James S. O'Neill, pastor of the Holy Family Church to leave his parish again Tuesday. Father O'Neill had just returned from a three weeks' illness at St. Vincent's hospital, but after two days at home he became so ill he followed his physician's advice and left for Murietta Hot Springs, where it is hoped the baths will give him relief.

During his absence one of the Jesuit fathers from Loyola college will conduct the services at the church Sunday, but there will be no daily mass and the First Friday services will have to be given up. It is doubtful whether Father O'Neill will be able to return before the middle of August.

New Store Will Open Here on September 1

Glendale has already won the reputation of being the fastest growing city in the United States and is well on the way of gaining another laurel as the city of fine stores. One of the latest up-to-date stores to be acquired by the city of Glendale is that which will open about September 1 at 115 East Broadway and which will be in charge of Miss M. Holzman and Joe Holzman, recently of New Mexico and Texas where they conducted a chain of stores. A complete line of dry goods, ready-to-wear and furnishings will be included in the stock of this new store, which will move into the rooms now occupied by the Chevrolet agency.

Plenty of Argentine Picture Fans; Favor American Productions

BUENOS AIRES—"Let's go and see a section." That is the ever-popular refrain at the dinner table in the homes of Buenos Aires.

To those who are accustomed to meandering down Broadway and strolling in to see the latest exuberations of Doug Fairbanks or Mary Pickford, this expression will need an explanation. While in the American motion picture theatres, one enters and pays to see the whole program consisting of one long feature play and several shorter comics, scenics, etc., in the Argentine movie palaces, the programs consist usually of three feature plays, each making up a section, and two or three short films, together comprising a section. The movie fan buys a ticket for which ever section or sections he or she desires to see, or, to see the whole program, a "completo."

The motion picture is foremost among the diversions of the people of Argentina. Every little town in the country of only a few hundred population, boasts of at least one picture theatre. The movies have done much for the natives, for, outside of Buenos Aires, Rosario, and one or two other cities, the people learn to understand modern methods, customs, and fashions only through the motion picture.

All Films American

Practically all the films shown here are American, and to a large extent, up to the present time, the natives of Argentina have gained their ideas of the North American, unfortunately, from the films, particularly those of the American cowboy, such as William Hart revels in. However, they are now beginning to realize their mistake, and to see that all Americans do not wear big sombreros and pack two guns on their hips. Now the pictures are beginning to have a tendency to instill into the Argentinans the up-to-date ideals of dress, general behavior, etc.

Argentina is now beginning to take an active interest in the production of the films themselves, and already a few films have been produced here. A very few were just passable. This was due to the lack of really good actors, and failure to apply modern methods in the actual producing, such as lighting effects, etc.

One successful film which was produced here was one entitled "Patria Argentina," a film of Argentina historical value and geographical interest. This picture met with considable favor here.

Fight Plan to Put Federal Tax Burden From Rich to Poor

BY HERBERT W. WALKER
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Leaders of the agricultural blocs in the senate and house today sought ways to defeat what they regard as an effort to shift the federal tax burdens from the rich to the poor. As part of their plan, the agricultural leaders are considering a determined fight for retention of the excess profits tax in the revenue bill now being framed. Should increased levies be placed on the average man, or the normal income tax not reduced the blocs probably will demand continuance of the profits tax, which up to a short time ago appeared certain to be dropped.

The tax proposals of Secretary Mellon which call for a reduction only of the taxes on wealthy corporations and individuals with the exception of the repeal on soda water levies has aroused the ire of the farmer representatives. Representative Frear, Representative Young, North Dakota, and other members from the middle west today denounced the suggestions that federal taxes be placed on automobiles and bank checks and that the postage rate be increased to 3 cents.

In the senate, Senator Capper, of Kansas, one of the leaders of the agricultural bloc has stated his intention of fighting any plans to reduce taxes of the wealthy unless those of the poorer classes are cut proportionately. He favors the retention of the excess profits levy.

Freeing Big Incomes

"The chief effort of certain propagandists seems to be toward freeing big incomes from a greater part of their tax burden and substitution of consumption taxes that would have to be paid out of wages and incomes," said Capper.

"The man with a million gets more real service from this government for himself and property and pays relatively less than any other American citizen. It is the man with the $2000 or $3000 who is the Star Spangled American taxpayer. And nobody appears to wish to deprive him of this noble distinction."

NEW YORK — Mrs. Benjamin Roberts valued her husband at $75,000. She brought suit for that amount against Vida Moore, alleging among other things that Roberts took the defendant riding in the plaintiff's automobile.

Honeymoon Is Over and Hard Work Now Looms for Officials

By L. C. MARTIN
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—The Republican politicians in Washington declare that "the honeymoon is over."

By this they mean that the Harding administration is settling down to the real tasks that confronted it. The politicians are sorry, for "honeymoon," to them, means the time of giving out choice patronage.

Important jobs remain to be distributed, it is true, including many connected with the enforcement of prohibition, which are more sought after than any other kind. But Harding, having taken care of major appointments, has now turned over much of the patronage work to John T. Adams, new chairman of the Republican national committee. He was forced to this, his friends say, by the increasing pressure of more important public business.

Politicians are interested in the alleged end of the "honeymoon period," also because to them it marks the time when they may cease to be as careful, tactful, and yielding to the heads of their party, as was considered necessary during the time when the disposition of important jobs might hang, in the opinion at least of some job-seeks, on a smile or a pleasant word or a vote in congress.

Full Speed Ahead

In other words, the wise and weary political observers who stay around Washington year after year, are now watching for a little more independence from "the boys" when their views happen to conflict with those of the president or some of his advisers.

The administration is now running full speed ahead, its observing friends report. Its critics, equally observing, admit that it has begun to show signs of life, and they are carefully watching for mistakes. Here are some of the "irons in the fire:"

The disarmament conference.

Negotiations and legislation pertaining to refunding of principal and interest of $10,000,000,000 in foreign loans.

Settlement of the Pacific question.

Preparation of a treaty with Germany, and of a proclamation formally declaring the state of war at an end.

Discussions with the railroads regarding settlement of their account.

Tax and tariff revisions, which are in the hands of congress, and are being proceeded with in that body's usual manner.

Reorganization of the Shipping Board.

Reorganization of government departments, it is announced, can begin shortly, as a report of the reorganization committee is soon to be made.

They See Tiger; It May Be Blind, What?

SOMERVILLE, N. J.—Twice in a week residents of this town have seen an animal, believed to be a tiger, in the outskirts of the residence district.

The animal was first seen last Friday night by Mr .and Mrs. Charles W. Brokaw. Since then a number of small animals have disappeared from this vicinity. Residents believe that the supposed tiger, which they fear, has escaped from a circus train, has been preying on the smaller animals for food.

Last night the animal was again seen by James B. Duke, tobacco magnate. He rushed into his home to get a gun, but by that time the beast had disappeared.

Whether or not the tiger was blind, the informants did not say.

Playing Checkers Is Disorderly, Man Holds

CHICAGO—Ralph Nerger peeped in his window and saw his wife playing checkers with Frank D. Richardson, former prohibition director. He had them arrested for disorderly conduct.

One of the most valuable historical discoveries made in recent times is the remarkable discovery of city records of the City of Mexico, dating back to the year 1524, in the basement of the municipal building at the capital. A portion of the basement which had been bricked in centuries ago contained complete daily records since January 1, of that year. Decrees of Spanish kings and Aztec relics were also found.

This Man Saves $30 by Following 'Hunch'

TURLOCK — A "hunch" saved Russell Schubert $30.

Schubert was going home from a movie theatre when he suddenly got a premonition that he was going to be robbed.

Acting on the hunch he took $30 in bills which he was carrying and stuffed them under his collar.

He had walked but two blocks when a man stepped out from an alleyway, poked a gun in his ribs, and ordered him to "put 'em up."

The highwayman searched him and only found 5 cents. He swore fluently, told Schubert to walk on down the street without looking back, and disappeared into the alley.

Schubert made $30 by his hunch.

School Teachers Get Their 'Specifications' for Proper Clothing

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—Girls hoping to teach school in San Francisco will kindly roll up their silken hosiery above their knees and lick any surplus carmen from their lips.

Mrs. Helen P. Sanborn, president of the San Francisco board of education, issued that edict today when she laid down these plans and specifications for the proper dress of school teachers:

No lip sticks—"They are the last word in bad taste."

No hand painted eyebrows—For "they are silly."

No "beauty windows"—They are "scandalous."

No rolled down hosiery—For "they are idiotic."

No jet ear rings—For a teacher must not pose as an "amateur Carmen."

No "wasp waists"—For they are "unhealthy and insane."

And don't wear too short a skirt, too low a waist or bobbed hair—for Mrs. Sanborn said she had no words to describe them.

Mrs. Sanborn issued her warning that violators of these rules could not hope to pass teachers' examinations; after a country school district wrote to the state board of education, asking help in finding a teacher who "was clothed below the knees and above the waist."

Women Workers Flock to Railroads' Employ

By RALPH F. COUCH
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—Women workers are now flocking to the employ of the nation's railroads.

Nearly 100,000 women now are helping to build new lines and maintain and operate existing systems, a forthcoming report of the interstate commerce commission is expected to show.

Women constituted in 1920 nearly five per cent of the nation's 2,000,000 railway employes, according to a census taken by the interstate commerce commission. And the number is increasing daily.

The commission is now preparing a new census of female railway workers for 1921.

The 1920 census shows that women are going in for all kinds of rail work, heavy as well as light. They are cleaning engines and headlights in roundhouses, keeping watch night as well as at dangerous grade crossings, operating telegraph keys, carrying messages of train dispatchers and even doing carpentry and other heavy work in the railroad shops.

In some jobs women, the railroads are learning, are more efficient than male workers.

Missing Trust Chief In Mexico, Reported

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—Warren C. Spurgin, fugitive president of the Michigan Avenue Trust company, was under surveillance in Mexico today, according to word reaching authorities here. Spurgin was recognized when he left the train at Marfa, Texas. He crossed the line into Mexico, July 19, according to these reports, obtaining a passport under the name of "Scott." Officials were notified by a taxi driver who said he recognized Spurgin from pictures. They trailed the absconding banker toward Chihuahua City.

The report of the bank examiner showed Spurgin obtained $1,595,495. Plans for reorganizing the bank so that the depositors would receive 100 cents on the dollar for money in the wrecked institution, are understood to have been abandoned. Other officials did not feel they could make up the huge loss.

Condition of Cotton Crop Is Below Normal

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 3.—The condition of the cotton crop on July 25 was 64.7 per cent of normal, as compared with 69.2 per cent for the same date of the preceding month and 74.1 per cent for July 25, 1920, the department of agriculture stated today.

The average for July 25 for the last ten years is 75.4 per cent.

A condition of 64.7 per cent on July 25 forecasts a yield per acre of about 148 pounds and a total of about 8,203,000 bales of 500 pounds gross. Last year the production was 13,365,754 bales.

Comparison of conditions by states includes:

California, July 25, 1920, 83; June 25, 1921, 77.

Arizona, July 25, 1920, 89; June 25, 1921, 88.

L. D. McKeen Purchases Property at Auction Sale

L. D. McKeen, a local building contractor, purchased the residence property at 208 West Maple avenue, at the auction conducted yesterday by Lewis S. Hart for Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cushman. The terms call for $6500 of which $2000 was cash. It is understood that Mr. McKeen will build on an adjoining lot. Considering the fact that the house is eleven years old, the price was very fair and the large turnout of bidders showed that there is a decided demand for homes here.

Discussions Take Up Over Harding Project

By A. L. BRADFORD
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—The Washington disarmament and Pacific conference was virtually on today.

Negotiations between the United States, Great Britain and Japan have been begun on the agenda of the forthcoming conference, it was learned.

This agenda which is to outline in general the scope of the Pacific and far eastern discussion in the Washington parley is considered one of the most important pieces of work of the whole conference.

Discussions are going on in Washington between Secretary Hughes, Ambassadors Geddes and Shidehara and in London and Tokio over the agenda.

Japan has made it plain that she does not want specific far eastern and Pacific questions, such as Shantung, brought into the conference. Hughes believes there should be the freest opportunity in the conference to discuss all subjects which are the basis of controversy or which might prove so in the future, and also it is believed Hughes intends to take up Shantung in the conference if it has not been satisfactorily settled.

PROHIBITION INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—A thorough investigation of the workings of the internal revenue bureau, including the prohibition unit, will be undertaken within a few days, Commissioner Blair of the bureau announced today.

"Certain charges—more or less sensational—and some of them of serious character," said Blair, "have been made against the conduct of its affairs."

Fire Is Now Added to Famine Districts

By CARL D. GROAT
United Press Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, Aug. 3.—Flames are sweeping famine and plague ridden districts in Siberia, according to reports received here today.

These reports were the first indication that the famine had spread to Siberia. Fires broke out in the sun-dried fields and swept over thousands of acres; huge clouds of smoke obscuring the skies and adding to the despair of the hungry refugees.

A dispatch received today from Riga quoted Senator Joseph I. France, of Maryland, who has just emerged from Moscow, as saying that famine conditions in Russia were unparalleled; but that the power of the soviet government was not killed. He was surprised at the ability of the soviet officials to maintain their organization.

Twenty million persons are now threatened with death by famine while the British and American governments are vaguely offering assistance under insidious terms which are meant to be the death blow of sovietism, according to a Moscow wireless picked up here. It appealed to the workers of the world to assist starving Russia. This manifesto issued by the Third Internationale, was signed by radicals of twenty-one different nationalities. It urged workers to prevent their governments from taking advantage of Russia's distress to overthrow the soviet.

Fined $10, Weeps But He Has Good Reason

NEW YORK — Alexander Cohen, arraigned for driving a lame horse, escaped with a $10 fine. He wept. The court asked how come. Cohen explained $80 worth of ice in his wagon outside had melted.

One unusual effect of the heat in New Jersey recently was the ignition by the sun of guncotton in an arsenal at New Brunswick. A magazine containing three hundred cases of black powder exploded, but no one was injured.
